Erasmus+ Adult Education

This programme aims to improve the quality of adult learning across Europe. It will provide opportunities for adult learning professionals to learn from each other and develop strategic partnerships. It will focus on common challenges, such as the recognition of skills learnt outside the formal education system. Erasmus+ will make adult learning more accessible and improve the skills of citizens across Europe.

Do you know.....?

Every year millions of people all around the world are forced to flee their homes because of different displacement reasons such as; poverty, war, persecution social and political exclusion or searching for a better life.

- Migration is one of the important issues of our last years. Current estimates are that there are 244 million international migrants globally (or 3.3% of the world's population).

As our societies are becoming more various because of migration tendencies, more people started to live in multicultural societies.

The increasing number of refugees' population call the need of some issues such as, social integration, tolerance, nondiscrimination, solidarity, public health etc.

- The Syrian crisis has entered its eighth year. More than 3.5 million people displaced by the violence there have sought refuge in Turkey. Their numbers, through births and new arrivals, are increasing by approximately 1,000 people per day. They join half a million more asylum seekers and refugees from other countries.

In 2016

- nearly 370.000 refugees and migrants have arrived in Europe, most of them by sea
- the main migrants and refugees nationalities were Syrian, Afghan, Nigerian, Pakistani, Iraqi and Eritrean;
- about 4.700 migrants have died in the Mediterranean while trying to reach Europe
- The continent saw around 171,000 sea arrivals in 2017 (less than 2016).
